NC Fraternal Order of Police Retains à la carte PR for Website Redesign

Special To LTW

CHARLOTTE – The N.C. Fraternal Order of Police (FOP) has retained à la carte PR to create a new website for the statewide law enforcement organization.

The FOP in North Carolina was launched in 1954, with the first lodge located in Asheville. Currently there are 51 local lodges across the state, with more than 5,200 law enforcement officers.

Based in Charlotte, à la carte PR offers electronic marketing, website creation and development, business writing and media and public relations services.
