FranNet - 'The Franchise Connection' – Announces Purchase of 'Rising Roll' Franchises

Charlotte, NC – (August 30, 2004)- FranNet - 'The Franchise Connection' - is pleased to announce that John Oys of Cornelius, NC has purchased the rights to own and operate two Rising Roll franchise businesses in the greater Charlotte area.

FranNet President, Michael Hall, says Oys' is a former U.S. Airways Pilot who was looking for a more secure future. "John and I worked closely together to match his background, interests, habits and goals with a franchise that suits him best both professionally and personally," says Hall.

The 54-year-old Oys says he used FranNet to help him find the right business match because of the in-depth coaching and information it provides. "By using FranNet, I was able to find the franchise I wanted and bought my first two Rising Roll territories within a month. I am excited about moving out of the airline industry to owning my own business. Now I will have greater control over making sure I can provide a good quality of family life for my family now and in the future."

FranNet - 'The Franchise Connection', is franchise sales and consulting firm that specializes in matching potential business owners with franchise companies that meet their personal and career goals. Many of these candidates are outplaced corporate executives seeking career alternatives.

Rising Roll focus is quality food – fast – including the 30-minute business lunch with an expansive menu of fully 70 made to order sandwiches and salads - distinguished from traditional delis- with creative, fresh-daily ingredients, quality meats and seven different fresh baked breads.
