'Beverly's Jewels' Donates Jewelry for Charlotte Business Woman of the Year Honorees

Charlotte, NC – Beverly's Jewels, LLC of Charlotte, NC is proud to donate special custom jewelry pieces to the five women honored at the 20th annual Charlotte Business Woman of the Year event held at Queens College. The event recognizes Charlotte's most outstanding women in the for-profit business sector while providing the opportunity for the public to meet and hear the insights of today's successful businesswomen.

Grant creates one-of-a-kind, high-quality custom jewelry designed to meet the needs and desires of professional women. "I create jewelry which allows women to communicate a more visible message of strength and empowerment," says Grant. "I am thrilled with the opportunity to have my jewelry adorn these outstanding women."

Finalist Sandra Meyer, with Duke Power, says, "In addition to noticing its beauty, my first reaction was how versatile the necklace is--due both to its reflections that add sparkle to any outfit as well as the adjustable length."

"A huge thank you to Beverly Grant with Beverly's Jewels who honored us with a sparkling one-of-a-kind handmade jewelry set that will serve as a reminder of this special occasion for years to come," says finalist Francis Queen, founder and CEO of Queen Associates.

Other finalists receiving the special gifts were Dee Dixon of Pride Magazine, Cynthia Carlson of Campbell/Carlson, LLC and the 2005 Charlotte Business Woman of the Year, Christie Taylor of Hodges Taylor Gallery.
